WHITE SOX VS. COWAN SUNDAY.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the fast Cowan Regulars, from Fleming county, will play the speedy White Sox, of this city, the deciding game of their championship series. As each team has won a game, the one to be played Sunday will be hot, as each is anxious to get the lead on the other team. Manager Rollie Ishmael has two star pitchers in Frost and Reams, one of which he will use in trying to stop the heavy-hitting Cowan team. Cowan will rely on Shepard, their star hurler, to bring home the bacon. This game will wind up the season for the Sox and for this reason the fans should come out in large numbers.

FOOTBALL THIS AFTERNOON.

This afternoon the second game of the championship series for the football honors of the Maysville High School will be staged at League Park. The Athenaeum and Adelphi teams are the two teams to play. The Athenaeum has the edge on the Adelphi by winning from them Wednesday, but this does not seem to worry the Adelphi, as they are confident of annexing the game this afternoon. A small fee will be charged as admission to the games, which are very fast and exciting, and well worth the price asked. Prof. G. C. Mance will act as referee for the game, which will be called at 3 o'clock.

A FEW MORE TO ANNOUNCE FOR COUNCIL.

As the time for the closing of announcement is drawing near, rumors of several other men to announce for Councilmanic honors are in the air. The election this year has created more interest than ever known in this city, the reason for this being that the people want to see what is being done in the Council and how it is being done. From the large field of candidates, it seems as though a model Council could be picked, and if the people do not do this it is their own fault.

WHO GOT THE BOOK?

County Judge W. H. Rice is "watchfully waiting" for the person or persons who borrowed his dictionary and failed to return it. The Judge and the officials about the Courthouse will be thankful if the book is returned at once, as they need it every minute of the day.

WHY BLIND THEM?

Berlin, October 13.—General Von Bissing, Governor General of Belgium, has issued a decree prohibiting the retention of song birds from which the eyes have been removed. The decree concludes: "The artificial blinding of birds is a cruelty which I can by no means tolerate."

EAST END CITIZEN.

Becomes Inquisitive and Wants To Be Enlightened On Some Things.
Editor The Public Ledger:
Dear Sir: In your paper yesterday we noticed that the City Fathers held a pow-wow to entertain a proposition from Mr. Thomas L. Ewan & Company, real estate dealers of this city, and the West Bros. Realty Company, of Louisville, and they, the real estate men, are very modest in their request. We can almost see the crimson blush as it mounts the visage of those promoters (benefactors, as they term themselves), when they ask for the $2,000 to pave their private enterprise. Why did they not also propose to pave the north side of Forest avenue, Elizabeth street, East Third street and Williams street. Gentlemen, why did you not ask for the whole thing and then why do you benevolent gentlemen narrow this request to thirty feet at the south end? Why did you not make it as broad as the street across Forest avenue? Would it cut off a few of your lots? Why did you not run a street next to Mrs. Joe Carr's, a continuation of Prospect street? Would that have taken off a few more lots?
Oh, you benevolent gentlemen! Most real estate companies, that is, first-class companies, put in their own pavements and shade trees. Say, by the way, did you overlook the shade trees? Why not ask the city to donate a few shade trees?
Now, if the City Council has any extra money to donate to private enterprises, we respectfully suggest that they pay off the debt on the bridge and pay out a few dollars for auditing the books, and we were told that it was necessary to raise the taxes to $1.55 because the saloons were going out of business. Well, has any saloon gone out of business? Almost thirteen months gone and we hear the same old cry, no money. Where has it gone, the extra tax and the saloon license?
No books audited, no bridge bonds or notes canceled, no improvements on East Second street.
Gentlemen, where have you spent this money? You are all standing for re-election. Come forward and tell us what you have done with the city's money, that you are entitled to a re-election. We will see what we will see Friday night at the second called meeting of Council this week for the same purpose which also takes a little more of the people's money for which they receive nothing.
EAST END CITIZEN.

GRAND LODGE OFFICERS.

Those Elected At the I. O. O. F. Meeting At Dawson Springs.
The following officers were elected by the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., Grand Master—Virgil E. Smith, of Somerset.
Vice Grand Master—Judge W. V. Gregory, of Mayfield.
Grand Warden—Beckham Overstreet, of Louisville.
Secretary—R. G. Elliott, of Lexington.
Treasurer—B. J. Durham, of Danville.
Grand Representative—W. G. Simpson, of Frankfort.
The old Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home was re-elected.
The next meeting of the Grand Lodge will be held at Lexington and will be highly entertained by the Odd Fellows of the Blue Grass capital.

SOUTHERN SYNOD.

Of Presbyterians In Session At Richmond, Hear Interesting Reports.
The meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky, in session at Richmond, was largely consumed by a report from the Synod's committee made by the Rev. S. P. Hawes, of Lexington.
It was followed by talks on Sabbath school conditions by the Rev. S. T. Hall; the Rev. W. W. Akers, Louisville; the Rev. E. E. Smith, Owensville; the Rev. H. V. Escott, Marion; the Rev. P. L. Bruce, Stanford, and the Rev. A. H. Donk, Wilmore. Extension, values and methods were discussed by Thomas B. Talbot, Winchester; the Rev. W. A. Hopkins, Owensville; the Rev. W. H. Hopper, Middleboro; and the Rev. J. V. Logan, Louisville. The report of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Benevolence was made by the chairman, the Rev. W. W. Logan, Louisville.
The evening session was occupied by an address, "The One Hundred Per Cent Sunday School," by the Rev. Charles B. Boving, of Bowling Green, and a stereoscopic address on "Colored Evangelistic Work," by the Rev. John Little, of Louisville.
The Synod elected the Rev. Sanford M. Logan, of Midway, Ky., moderator.
The Rev. W. M. Eldridge, of Point Lick, was named temporary clerk, the Rev. David M. Sweets, D. D., of Louisville, stated clerk and treasurer.
Devotional exercises were led by Dr. P. Bruce, of Stanford, followed by business and reports of committees, including the report of the directors of the Kentucky Theological Seminary at Louisville, by Dr. J. G. McAllister, of Louisville. An address on the assembly's home missions was delivered by the Rev. S. L. Morris, of Atlanta, Ga., executive secretary of home missions. The devotional hour sermon was delivered by the Rev. John M. Vander Meulen, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, Louisville.

DELIGHTFUL DANCE.

The dance given Thursday night at Neptune by Mr. William Bierley was a most delightful affair, a large and orderly crowd being in attendance. The Smith Saxophone Trio, of Lexington, furnished the music. Those who heard them perform say they are on a par with the famous Wright Trio, of Columbus. This trio will play at the Maysville Assembly Club dance given this evening at Neptune Hall.

COUNTY COURT.

A paper bearing the date of October 5, 1915, said to be the last will and testament of Flora B. Robinson, deceased, was produced in court, and upon the testimony of the attesting witnesses, M. H. Davis, Mrs. W. J. Lally and Mrs. A. C. Collins, was admitted to probate.
The inventory and appraisal of the estate of the late William Brown was produced in court, read, recorded and ordered filed.

SIXTH WARD MEETING.

About twenty of the Sixth Warders met Thursday night at the store of Mr. M. R. Wallingford, on East Second street. Two of the candidates for Councilman from that Ward were present.
It seemed to be the opinion of those present that they want two men to run. The platforms of Mr. George Fleming and of Mr. R. M. Harrison were read and discussed. These platforms seem to meet the views of those present.
There was no decided action taken as to whom the crowd would support. They want to be sure of their men and what they want will be attended to, and supported by their Councilman to the best of their ability.
If no other thing is accomplished except the discussion of candidates and their fitness for offices and what is needed, it is something worth while.
If the citizens of each Ward would get together every month in the year and discuss the good of the city and the Ward in which they live we would have a live, wide-awake, progressive, up-to-date city. A Council that would take notice of these wishes of the people as well as their wants is something that is desired.

THROWN OUT OF BUGGY.

A Mrs. Adams and child, who reside in the county east of this city, were in a smash-up Thursday afternoon at Second and Commerce streets, that looked serious for a while. Their buggy was run into by another vehicle and Mrs. Adams and child were dumped out, the child receiving a bad contusion on the head.

PURCHASE CARS.

The Central Garage Company sold the following persons cars on Thursday:
Mr. Charles Jones, of Fernleaf, a Ford touring car.
Mr. R. K. Hoeflich, of this city, an Overland touring car.
The cars were delivered at once.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Duke Watson, who died at the Jewish Hospital, in Cincinnati, Tuesday, was held Thursday afternoon at Maysville and was well attended by friends and relatives. Rev. F. W. Harrop, of Harlan, and Rev. T. H. Thompson, of Maysville, conducted the services.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

'Squire Fred W. Bauer had one lone case before him Thursday, Lute Feters, an old-timer, who was picked up drunk on the streets a few days ago. After giving Lute a lecture, the 'Squire handed him the neat little package of $5.15 for his action.

PAINTING BUILDING.

Crane & Shafer, the painters, have a large force of workmen busy this week painting and decorating the Lovel corner. When completed the corner will be one of the most attractive in the city.

BEAUTIFUL CEMENT PORCH.

Mr. M. J. Lynch's residence on West Second street is the object of many compliments these days, due to the splendid appearance of a new cement porch recently erected. The porch is very ornamental.
Mr. J. M. Cochran, who for the last few weeks has been confined with a slight attack of typhoid fever, is somewhat improved and will soon be out among his many friends again.
Mr. R. A. Cochran, who has been confined to his bed for the last two weeks, is also somewhat improved.

THE SHOWS.

The Gem had as its headliner the Broadway Star feature film, "The Mystery of Mary," in which Betty Gray was the leading lady. The film pleased all who saw it. The Eessany drama of two acts, "Jane of the Soil," was also shown. Lillian Drew and Richard Travers were the stars featured in this film, which was also good.
The Washington Opera House.—Anita Stewart, the star of the serial, "The Goddess," which was shown at the Washington Thursday, again delighted the large audience. "The Goddess" is fast becoming the most popular serial ever shown in this city and the nights it is shown the Washington is packed to the doors.

FILES SUIT.

Thursday, in the office of Circuit Clerk James E. Key, the Queen City Supply Company, through its attorney, F. P. D'Donnell, filed suit against James Ireland, a contractor of this city, for the sum of $447.45, with 6 per cent interest, which they claim is due them.

ARREST DISTURBER.

Thursday evening, Chief of Police James Mackey arrested Alvie Lowe, a well known character, on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. He will be given a hearing this afternoon before Police Judge John L. Whitaker.

WANT Y. M. C. A.

Business Men In Favor of Movement Started To Bring a Y. M. C. A. To This City.
The business men of this city and vicinity are heartily in favor of the movement started in this city a few days ago to establish a Y. M. C. A. They think a better move could not be made for the people of this vicinity. The young men of Maysville are behind the move, heart and soul, and pledge themselves to be members of the organization if it is started. At present they have not a place to spend their evening, except in some hotel lobby or a movie show. The clergy of the city are in favor of the move, as they think that the morals of the community would be benefited by such an organization. A mass meeting should be held and a committee appointed to canvass the city for members and subscriptions. A very small sum would start the movement. Once it is started it could be made self-sustaining. Let something be done at once.

DANCE TONIGHT.

The Maysville Assembly will entertain tonight at the Neptune Hall with a dance. The Smith Saxophone Trio, from Lexington, who played last evening for the dance given by Mr. William Bierley at the Neptune Hall, will furnish the music. Those who heard them last evening say they are equal to the famous Wright Trio, from Columbus. Several visitors from out-of-town will be in attendance at the dance tonight. This is the last dance the Assembly Club will give until the annual masquerade, the latter part of November.

FLUSH THEM OUT.

Several of the sewers of the city are stopped with rocks and dirt, and the stench arising from them is not what one would call the "perfumes of Arabia." A line of hose attached to the nearest fireplug and placed in the mouth of these sewers would soon clear away both the debris and the stench.

BRICK WORK ON COTTON FACTORY ANNEX STARTED.

Messrs. Bailey and Oliver, the contractors, have a large force of workmen busy on the brick work of the new annex of the Maysville Cotton Mills, which is replacing the old building which was burned in the disastrous fire of a few months ago. In a short time the contractors hope to have the building ready for the carpenters, who will rush the work so as to have the building completed before winter sets in.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at the Public Library this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

PRETTY RESIDENCE ALMOST COMPLETED.

The pretty residence of Mr. Ike Chanslor, the East Second street drug-gist, is almost completed and in about two weeks Mr. Chanslor will move into his new home, which is one of the most beautiful in the city.

FORMER RESIDENT RETURNS TO BOYHOOD HOME.

Mr. H. J. Humphries, of Milwaukee, Wis., is visiting relatives in this locality. This is the first time in twenty-five years that Mr. Humphries has been in this city. He says the city has changed wonderfully since he was here last and speaks in a complimentary manner about it.

LAYING FOUNDATION.

Stonemasons have about completed the foundation of the new home of Mr. Charles Bland on Riverview Terrace. From the looks of the foundation the house will be one of the prettiest in the city. It will be several months before it will be ready for occupation.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Submitting to the solicitations of many friends, I herewith announce myself as a candidate for a seat in the City Council from the Second Ward. My convictions at all times are for those issues that pertain to the betterment and general welfare of this city.
ROSS C. OWENS.

How To Avoid The Motor Car That Bags At the Knees

The automobile is curiously like the human body—an assembling of independent parts.
The man-machine is made up of muscle and bone, nerve and blood, water and fat, waste matter and brains.
As far as locomotion is concerned, neither machine is any stronger than its weakest 'link.'
Mark the badly co-ordinated man. He looks O. K., but when there are stairs to climb or pace to be forced, he puffs and pants, and one concludes that his luddish color came from a recent facial massage; that his belly need mending, that his muscles aren't; that his 'strength' is mere scenery and that his sound appearance is mostly tailor made.
Haven't you seen automobiles just like that, look 'pretty' but won't take you from Here to There and Back?
The 'Wonder Car' that the Square Deal Man sells won't 'bag at the knees,' and he can prove by the testimony of delighted owners that it will take you There and Back, not once, but many times, and that it is the lowest 'After Cost' car on the market today. If you are a prospective car owner, 'phone us and we will be glad to take you for a trial spin in the Maxwell '25.'

STANLEY CAMPAIGN SLUMPING?

lection day only about three weeks dis-becoming possible to make something of sis of political conditions in
as far as they relate to the gubernatorial ent to the most casual observer that the ampaign is in the "dumps." Mr. Stanley, ee, has not aroused anything like the

he did as a candidate for the nominareason for this is not difficult to dis-

the nomination, Mr. Stanley
a noisy element in his party view—first to defeat the ate for Governor, and secondly,
ination of a man who, if chosen,
it that the temperance forces were any attempts they might make to the county unit law.

rees, having succeeded in nominating s, are now content to let him and his angers gather all further sinews of er they may. It has been charged that orges contributed something like $300,
the expenses of nominating Mr. Stan-the great bulk of the 40,000 votes to Mr. Stanley and nobody else in the fraudulent or purchased outright.

Stanley has signally failed to con-
ve friends of the county unit to entrust with the reins of ime.

ers have made every effort to lief that there is no difference ne Republican platforms or the Democratic nominees for Govern-the liquor question is concerned, and stion may therefore be eliminated.

This, however, has fallen flat. The friends of the county unit law look upon Mr. Stanley as a positive menace. They regard him as the very embodiment of the sentiment which keeps the saloon
in politics, and they believe that should he be elected Governor he will never hesitate to take the side of the liquor interests in opposition to anything which the temperance people may want.

They remember his positive declaration that he has always been opposed to the county unit, and they do not believe that his expressions of loyalty to the county unit plank in his party platform have the true ring, especially in view of the tremendous influence which the brewers, the distillers, the wholesale liquor dealers and the saloon keepers exercised as delegates to and officers of the Democratic platform convention.

Mr. Morrow, on the other hand, while he does not profess to be in favor of Statewide prohibition, has always supported the county unit principle and can be depended upon to treat the temperance people fairly in any emergency. It is very evident that he will get thousands of votes on this issue alone.

Mr. Stanley, it is also apparent, has lost ground through his failure to make answer to the Republican charges of fraud, extravagance and mismanagement of the State's business at Frankfort.

He has ignored these charges and endeavored to conceal the State issues by fervent appeals to the voters of Kentucky to "stand by the President."
Unfortunately for his party, the President is not running for Governor of Kentucky and his foreign policy has nothing whatever to do with matters of State finance, taxation and general administration.

Mr. Stanley's blanket defense of Barksdale Hamlett and other derelict officials has lost him many votes. He has made no effort whatever to make reply in detail to the specific charges of incompetency and willful misuse of the State's money by these officials—charges which in part have been admitted and which as a whole have not been answered by anybody.

Another and an interesting phase of the Stanley campaign is that the leading Democratic papers are saying so little about his candidacy in their editorial columns that his campaign managers are no doubt having some trouble keeping the rank and file of the voters informed as to who is really the Democratic nominee for Governor.

When a candidate is not good enough to support editorially by his party organs, there must be something seriously the matter with him or with his record.

The people do not fail to see and appreciate this.
Truly, "It begins to look like Morrow."—Lexington Leader.

Some Democrat in Kentucky is going to get a letter pretty soon. It will be dated at the White House and it will be signed by Woodrow Wilson.
It will tell how much the President desires the election of a Democratic Governor in the Blue Grass county, etc., etc.

The boy was very small and the load he was pushing in the wheelbarrow was very, very big.
A benevolent old gentleman, putting down his bundles, lent him a helping hand.

"Really, my boy," he puffed. "I don't see how you manage to get that barrow up the gutters alone."

"I don't," replied the appreciative kid.
"Dere's always some jay standin' 'round as takes it up for me."—Puck.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Who the Candidates Are For the Various State Offices.

INFORMATION FOR THE BENEFIT OF VOTERS.

The Ledger, for the benefit of voters, will for the next few days publish a short biographical sketch of the various candidates on the Republican ticket. This is done to enable every one to have a better knowledge of who the Republicans are putting forward for office.

JUDGE JAMES P. LEWIS, Nominee of the Republican Party for Secretary of State:

Judge James P. Lewis, of Whitesburg, Letcher county, Republican candidate for Secretary of State, is a native of Letcher county, and one of its finest type of citizens. He is a lifelong Republican, a Mason and a member of the Baptist church. He is like most of the Republican ticket, a young man, forty-five years old.

Judge Lewis began his education
in a log schoolhouse and completed it at Valparaiso (Ind.) University, and earned by his own efforts the expenses of his college education. At the age of 23 he was appointed Superintendent of County Schools of Letcher county and was subsequently elected to that position. He was later elected Judge of the Letcher County Court, and has since been engaged in the banking and real estate business.
In which he has been very successful.

Judge Lewis is a native of the Kentucky hills, has found a taste for the waters of their rippling rivers and will not burden the taxpayers of the State with expensive Anita water.

THOMAS B. MCGREGOR,
Republican Nominee for Attorney
General:

Thomas B. McGregor, Republican nominee, is a native of Marshall county, but at present is a leading attorney at the Frankfort bar. After completing his education, Mr. McGregor studied law, and as a very young man was admitted to the Benton bar, where his ability immediately attracted attention. His taste for politics and his force as an orator soon brought him

WHEN THE KIDNEYS FAIL

Maysville People Have Found That Kidney Pills

Do you ever feel that you simply can't go any further—that you must have rest from that lame and aching back—relief from the constant, dead-tired feeling—freedom from those stabbing, darting pains? Likely your kidneys are worn and tired and need help. The kidneys work night and day, removing uric acid from the blood and other waste created by expenditure of strength and energy.
Naturally a life of unusual activity doubles the duties of the kidneys and in time the strain generally tells.
Doan's Kidney Pills have brought new strength to thousands of bad backs and quick relief to weakened kidneys, so users say. Let them do the same for you.

S. O. Duncan, blacksmith, Flemings-burg, Ky., says: "I had severe backaches and my kidneys were out of order, their action being irregular. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills, I gave them a trial and was soon convinced of their merit. They strengthened my kidneys and back."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Duncan had. Foster-Milburn Co., Trops, Buffalo, N. Y.

Under Governor Wilson's administration, he was appointed Assistant Attorney General. He discharged the duties of that office so ably and efficiently that at the end of his term
he was chosen as the Republican nominee for Attorney General. The high esteem in which he is held by his fellow Republicans is further shown by their action in giving him the nomination for that office without opposition this year. Tom McGregor is one of the most popular speakers in Kentucky, and he will be heard in every part of the State this fall.

EDWARD A. WEBER,
Republican Nominee for State
Auditor:

Hon. Edward A. Weber, of Fort
Thomas, is the nominee of the Republican party for Auditor.
Mr. Weber is a native of Campbell county and represented that county
in the lower house some years ago.
He is an architect and builder, and a large number of handsome edifices, public and private, attest the excellence of his skill, among them the beautiful Governor's mansion at Frankfort.

Mr. Weber is a young man, brimful of energy and enterprise, and is eminently fitted for the very responsible position for which his party has nominated him.

W. A. HUNTER,
Republican Nominee for State
Treasurer:

William A. Hunter, whom the Republican party has nominated for the office of State Treasurer, is a native of Cumberland county, where he was born forty-three years ago.
Mr. Hunter is a son of Hon. W. Godfrey Hunter, who is one of the best known Republicans in the State. Like Col. Morrow, Mr. Hunter is a politician by inheritance and has all his life been active in Republican politics.
He is of the Christian faith and is an active member of the Knights of Pythias. Mr. Hunter was for a number of years an appointee in the office of Dan R. Collier, Surveyor of the Port of Louisville, and is at present engaged in the wholesale coffee and tea business in Louisville.

Mr. Hunter is a successful business man and is eminently fitted for the duties of the office of State Treasurer.

OSTRICHES AT SIX CENTS EACH.

Tremendous changes in the values of ostriches and ostrich feathers have occurred since the war, so it is reported by Consul Wakefield from Port Elizabeth, South Africa. South Africa has exported as much as $25-000,000 of ostrich feathers a year, but interest in the ostrich as a revenue-producer is now declared by Mr.
Wakefield to be at the lowest possible
e-b. Birds are dying by thousands from lack of food and attention.

At Johannesburg it is stated that ostriches are of so little value that the Poundmaster has written to the Council asking permission to refuse ostriches in the pound. A full grown ostrich which had found its way to the Johannesburg pound was, on behalf of the public auction, sold for one shilling and sixpence.

You get acquainted with Prince Albert in the toppy red bag, 5c, or tidy red tin, 10c, but for the double-back-action-jay, you buy a crystal-glass round humidor. And then you're set. You see, it has the sponge-moistener top and keeps
P. A. at the highest top-notch point of perfection. Prince Albert tobacco is in a word and humidor.

And that line of conver-

you play P. A. in your old jimmy pipe or roll it into a makin's cigarette.
you can put your little old blue-pencil
right here that Prince Albert is a lar double-header for a single admission

the best bet—the best smoke

the fire to! Men, we tell you to wise up.

P. A. is crimp cut and stays put—which means rolling P. A. is as easy as falling off a Here's tobacco that has made it possible for three men to smoke pipes where one

Any way you hook it up, Prince Albert is tobacco insurance! Yes, sir, it guarantees your future as well as your present smok-

SPEAK UP.

What can we do to improve conditions in this town and in the adjacent farming community?

Have you a solution, a practical suggestion?

While we probably have no more cause for complaint than other parts of the country, yet it is always possible to get together and accomplish better results.

If you have a good idea, spring it.
We can stand more than our present allotment of prosperity, and if we put our heads together and each one contributes freely of his intelligence and thought it should not be a difficult matter to eventually strike the right chord.

What is your suggestion?
Better be a sinner with a heart
than a deacon with only a gizzard.

Coming Tuesday, October 19, Charlotte Walker in a Picturization of "Kindling"

Read the Following Synopsis of This Great Picture

"KINDLING," which scored a tremendous hit when first produced on Broadway and throughout America, is a play with an immense human theme—the right of honorable beings, industrious and sober, to live under such conditions that they can bring children into the world and give them a fair chance in life. Though the subject is especially plain-spoken, so to speak, the author, Mr. Charles Kenyon, handles it with that simplicity which dignifies it and makes it eternal drama.

The heroine of "Kindling" is a woman of the tenements, about to become a mother, who is afraid to admit the coming event to her husband because she knows that he thinks it wrong to bring children into a life of poverty and squalor. In her attempt to solve a problem which is too big for her she steals from the rich woman who owns the wretched building in which she has been condemned to dwell. When the day of reckoning comes she finds that her husband is really worthy of her and he tries to shield her from all blame.

The events which lead to the happy conclusion of this wonderful drama, and the departure of husband and wife for the Far West, are of most compelling interest.

"KINDLING" is a theme drama of the finest order. It has been produced by Cecil B. De Mille and is a positive masterpiece.

MAKING PROGRESS

These happy, healthy looking children were sent to this open air school in Louisville a little time ago because they were run down and anemic. Warmly clothed and provided with special diet, they do their school tasks in a room with the windows wide open, so that the wind can blow over them. Without exception these children make rapid progress in school and improve in health almost beyond belief.

MORROW PERTINENT.

Asks Stanley To Approve Or Condemn Hamlett's Record.

Mayfield, Ky., October 13.—Edwin P. Morrow, Republican nominee for Governor, in an address to a large and enthusiastic audience in the Graves County Courthouse last evening, issued an open challenge to A. O. Stanley, in which he dared the Democratic candidate to take some stand, either of approval or disapproval of the conduct of Barksdale Hamlett, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Democratic nominee for Secretary of State, in the alleged reckless expenditure of money from the Kentucky school fund.

Stanley must either approve or disapprove of the conduct of Superintendent Hamlett in the expenditure of money out of the school fund, said Mr. Morrow. He must tell the people whether or not he believes in charging our veteran school teachers $5 for life certificates and in inducing these teachers to pay him fees that are not required by law.

"If the Democratic party approves of Hamlett and his record, then the party is on trial and I am ready for the voters to decide whether or not this unspeakable condition shall continue to prevail," said Mr. Morrow. "Stanley has never said a word in defense of Hamlett and I challenge him to say that he approves of the methods of Hamlett. The attack on former Governor Wilson for expenses incurred by that official in representing Kentucky at the conference of Governors is absolutely obscured and will deceive nobody."

Mr. Morrow also censured Mr. Stanley for the inconsistency of the nominee's stand on various questions before and after the primaries. He spoke in the afternoon at Princeton to one of the largest political gatherings in the history of Caldwell county. Two thousand persons heard his address.

Mr. Morrow was introduced as the next Governor of Kentucky, by former United States Senator W. J. Deboe. The speaker was applauded when he condemned the action of the War Department in refusing to permit his twin brother, Captain Charles L. Morrow, of the United States Army, to make speeches in his behalf in the recent campaign.

Mr. Morrow was roundly applauded and Stanley for his attitude toward the war.

stand on the vital issues of the day. Mr. Morrow declared that the character of Stanley's speeches in Louisville, in the mountains and in other rural regions of the State differ so materially in spirit and substance that they make the Democratic nominee utterly ridiculous.

Don't do too much kicking about all of this war news in the daily press. We are experiencing a welcome respite from politics.

Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

—Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 3961 Toussaint St., New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."

—Miss ESTELLA MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., St. Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman who understands your confidence.

WHEN THE FLAG PASSES.

The question of encouraging the outward forms of respect for the national flag and the national anthem is just now frequently discussed. There is a general desire on the part of Americans to tighten up our somewhat slovenly and careless habits in these matters.

An evidence of this is seen in orders just issued to the New York police. Hereafter officers must stand at attention and salute the flag when it passes in the custody of the United States army or of the National Guard. Officers will also observe the same form when the national anthem is played. A policeman not in uniform must raise his hat.

These ordered and official marks of respect to the flag are most appropriate. They create an example which the private citizen should find it not only easy, but desirable to follow. We do not go in much for formalities in this country. But if the police in all American cities would follow the lead of the police of New York, the time might come when we could say of saluting the flag that "everybody's doing it."

FRAIL, SICKLY CHILD

Father Tells How Boy Was Restored To Health and Strength.

We have always told the people of Mayville that Vinol is a wonderful body builder for ailing children. Here is more proof of the fact:—

J. L. Albury, of Miami, Fla., says:—"Our little boy was puny and cross from the time he was born, and we hardly knew how to handle him. When he was three years old he was weak and so cross we could hardly live with him, and we could not get him to eat anything. A friend asked us to try Vinol. We did so and you should see the change it has made in him. He is now a good-natured, healthy youngster, ready to eat at any time, and we cannot praise Vinol enough."

efficient in killing children's colic, liver of iron and contains, and as a result, children are healthy.

No woman is ever a failure in the estimation of her family.

AS TO FEE SPLITTING.

A new law has gone into effect in Ohio which makes it a crime for physicians and surgeons to split fees, and it is encouraging to note that the law is backed by the great majority of the reputable physicians of the state. It seeks to correct an evil that has grown to some proportions and which has worked out to the serious disadvantage of patients, especially those compelled to undergo operations.

Writing of one phase of fee splitting in the Chicago Daily Tribune, Dr. W. A. Evans says that "an open fee splitter confesses his incompetence. The very competent operators do not split fees. They know they are competent and they get, and will get, the business which comes to them, on a basis of merit. The operators who split fees are second and third grade operators. Therefore a patient who is being disposed of by a fee splitter among fee splitters, may be certain that the best he can get is one of the best he can get among second and third grade men. He can be certain that he never has a chance to get the services of any high-grade man, of any man good enough to get business on his merit alone."

Dr. Evans then asks this significant question—"If physicians barter patients among fee splitters as a commercial transaction, will not unnecessary operations be the inevitable result? If a physician diagnoses an infected appendix and sends the patient to a fee splitter, it is not possible that the diagnosis will be confirmed, regardless of the condition found, and an unnecessary operation done?"

It is suggested that those about to undergo operation, investigate for themselves, satisfy themselves that they are getting a square deal from their regular physician, and also that the reputation of the man who is to operate upon them is above suspicion or question as to the fee proposition. It is an easy matter to satisfy one's self before an operation. It may be too late to find out after the operation that the patient has gone to a second or third class man.

With Presidential candidates buzzing around in every direction, the national Sunday school class will soon be looking for larger quarters.

If we are to have Huerta inflicted upon us let's trot out the tax assessor.

WHO PROFITS BY FREE SUGAR?

That the Democratic National Committee was looked upon as the sugar porters in the matter of sugar tariffs is amply proven by the testimony of Frank C. Lowry, sales agent of Federal Sugar Refining Company, testimony before the Lobbying Committee of the Senate. Lowry admitted that he had on the admission for free sugar the admission of the sugar tariff that had no real existence; he had prepared free sugar which was circulated by the Democratic National Committee. In a scheme, he said, was the sugar refiners' money, and into to hoodwink the people into believing that mean cheaper sugar. There are two main reasons under the protection of the sugar industry has the production of sugar can soil, particularly in the production of beet sugar. This beet sugar is sold at a price that is not ready for the beet factories and sells at a price with the sugar of the very pound of sugar. American flag means of foreign grown sugar is collected in that the raw sugar is interested in getting as cheaply as possible; according to the Democratic Congressional control the refining of the country, and with the out of the way under the pockets the $50,000,000 went to the government. The attitude of the American farmer-sugar was well expressed by Helke, former secretary of the House Committee. In a question, "Now if the moved absolutely on the face either can be applied, and you asked. ### STORK RUBY IN OHIO.

Near 100,000 Babies Born in Buckeye State in 1914.

Columbus, O., October 13.—If there is any likelihood of the United States being involved in war the good old stork, which brought 98,898 babies to Ohio during 1914, is not yet "wise" to the fact.

The males numbered 50,442 and the females 48,256. It has long been a firm belief that war always was preceded and followed by a heavy increase in the number of male children. The 1914 figures are normal. There were 1,929 negroes, two Chinese, five Japanese and two Indians.

The counties that have increased in population have more male children than female, but those which are declining in population have more female children.

FLIES KILLING CATTLE.

Adams County, O., Reports New Way of Taking Off Stock.

During the last few weeks cattle in various parts of the county have been attacked by swarms of small flies, which collect around the ankles of the animals and soon eat into the flesh.

In the Peebles neighborhood several head of the animals thus attacked have developed blood poison and died.

A number of milk cows have been thus affected, several in the West Union vicinity.

If your cow is eating less, losing flesh and giving less milk, examine her ankles for this scourge. If flies are eating into her flesh, stop using or selling the milk.

CHILDHOOD TRAINING—TEACH COURTESY.

When a small boy, who said his name was "John Doe," was found on some church steps in New York, and all other trace of his home and people was a blank, some one noticed his manners at the table. They discovered that he was "well bred," because "he used his napkin and spoon and fork correctly." It is understood that a child who has good table manners comes from a good family.

In the above case the boy being "well-trained," found a home in the family of a very wealthy man, who discovered his good manners. Is it not well, then, in view of this case, that each person entrusted with the care of little children give extra time to the careful training of the very young child? "John Doe" asked for a clean spoon, when the one he had was sticky with sugar. Some mother had given him real attention. Once when a child, I remember having friends to dine. We all lived in the country and were not wealthy, but mother had carefully trained us to use our napkins at the table. The little visitors watched in awe when each sturdy youngster tucked his square of neatly hemmed cotton cloth—for linen was not so cheap as now—under his fat chin, and Johnnie, the visitor, roared out: "Oh, ma, look! They've all got washrags on." But six years of age, I flushed hot and cold with shame; and quite agreed with mother after the "com-pany had departed, that "we should be so well-mannered both at table and in the home that should we be invited to dine with the queen, we would be used to the courtesy and usages of well-bred people."

One morning late last fall our bell rang very early, while we were at breakfast. A poor travel-stained man stood at the door. He asked for food, saying that he had slept in the park on a bench all night, having no money, and trying to reach his sister's home some twenty miles further on. The porch furniture was still in place, and he was asked to be seated in a rocker near a small table, because his well-chosen language had stamped him as an unfortunate man who had seen better days.

We served him hot coffee and rolls and butter; his manners told the good man of the house that he was worthy of help, and he obtained it. His parting words clung in my memory. "Thank you, madam; you have given me a splendid breakfast, and this money will be returned. I have been ill for several months, and spent all my money, and as I am still unable to work I am trying to get to my sister's home."

He had acted the gentleman, and no man can hide his early training. Good manners will cling throughout life, no matter what station one fills. Habits are formed in childhood. Bricks baked in the oven can not be changed. Once they were plastic clay, to be molded at will. The plastic age begins at birth; the time to impress is in the tender years.

Starting the Day Right

THE first exercise of the day at the open air school for the treatment of anemic children in Louisville is a cold shower bath. The bath lasts only a few seconds and is followed by a quick, hard rub with a coarse towel, so that the blood is brought again to the surface. The cold bath hardens any one so that an exposure to cold air and drafts is no longer dangerous. In addition the quick, cold bath sends each child to the school-room happy and alert for the duties of the day.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS RESPONSIBLE FOR EXTRAVAGANCE.

A well known newspaper defender of the Wilson administration says that "the expenditures allowed by the last Congress, in view of the declaration of the Baltimore convention in regard to economy, were a disgrace. No preceding Republican Congress had gone the length of a Democratic Congress elected on a platform of economy. The last one made a record for extravagance. It embarrassed the President and brought down ridicule upon his administration."

All of which is true except that the censure is grossly misplaced when it is loaded upon Congress, and also excepting the statement that Congress embarrassed the President. If the President has been embarrassed, it is due solely to his own action. He has absolute control over his cabinet. That cabinet asked for appropriations to the amount of $84,000,000 more than the last Congress appropriated, though the total appropriations of that Democratic Congress were $177,000,000 than were made by the last Republican Congress. The real fact is that by asking for so much money the Wilson cabinet embarrassed Congress and made its work far more difficult than it should have been.

If the Democratic Congress had received any co-operation whatever from the President in its efforts to economize, there might have been a different story to tell. But the President in his address to the two houses of Congress, at the opening of the last session, said that the American people are not jealous of the amount of money appropriated if they get what they want for their money. No words could have been uttered more plainly inviting Congress to extravagance. If that language means anything, it means that if the people get money for local public buildings and other public improvements commonly but often erroneously referred to as "pork," they will not criticize the administration. Of course President Wilson put it in the more dignified language of the college professor, but its meaning could not have been otherwise than a call for larger public expenditures.

Undoubtedly, President Wilson will send an economy message to the next Congress, and attempt to pose before the country as the watch-dog of the treasury. But the American people are possessed of more than average intelligence and have a habit of reading and remembering. Moreover, the people are honest enough and courageous enough, to place the responsibility exactly where it belongs, despite the studied efforts of the President's friends to shift the responsibility entirely to Congress, where only a lesser degree of blame should be placed.

It is true that the Democratic Congress passed the extravagant appropriation bills, but it did so under pressure from the Executive Departments. Not one of those appropriations became or presumably would become a law without the consent of the President, who holds the power of veto.

Now, if the defenders of and apologists for the President can get any consolation out of the record, they are welcome to exploit it to their heart's content. Not one of them has the hardihood to challenge the veracity of the fighting Democratic Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, Hon. J. J. Fitzgerald, who, in an address to Congress, told of the excessive recommendation of the members of the cabinet. An issue of that kind, between Wilson and Fitzgerald might very easily start a movement for Fitzgerald as a nominee of the Democratic party in the place of Wilson. If the campaign were on a platform of economy, certainly the Democrats would have no objection to supporting Fitzgerald.
